October 2026 Prayer Letter

Church Update:

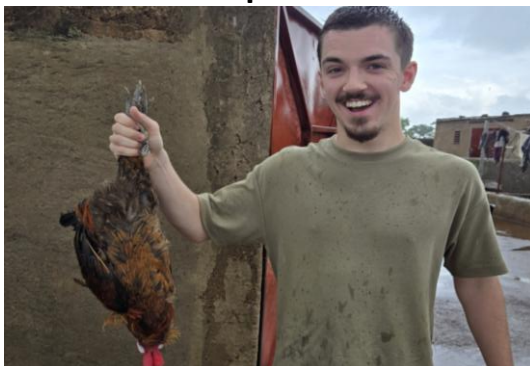

Last month, we held several outreach events, both at Victory Baptist Church and in partnership with other churches. One exciting event, pictured on the right, took place in the village of Tinsuka, just outside Ouagadougou. The Lord blessed with nine professions of faith! Also very encouraging, we received word that eight new visitors attended the local church the following Sunday as a direct result of the outreach. Praise the Lord for the fruit He is giving!

We are excited to see the continued growth of the church in Zinguedesse! The church is faithfully reaching its community through evangelism, seeing fruit from its efforts, and now covering all its expenses without outside support. What an encouragement to see this church becoming truly indigenous! Please continue to pray for its growth and for our other church plants as they work toward becoming independent and self-supporting.

Outreach:

Intern updates:

We are excited to welcome another intern to Burkina Faso! Grant Snodgrass is a mission's student who will be serving alongside us for the next six months. He has a great attitude and a heart to follow God's leading for his future. We have already enjoyed visiting several villages together as he settles into life here. Please keep Grant and the Turner family in your prayers as they continue serving and adjusting to life in Burkina Faso.

Prayer Requests:

- Pray for the church, Victory Baptist Church of Zinguedesse
- Pray for the church plant at Kombissiri
- Pray for God to raise up new laborers for the mission field
- Pray for the Turners and Grant as they get settled in Burkina Faso
